MURDER OF AN ITALIAN -A bordble murder was brought to light yesterday by the finding of the half barned body of John Mattein, an Italian, in the left of his residence in New Orleans. The theory of the police is that Matteln was burned by his wife on Sunday night while asleep, and that she used a hand axe, as a bloody axe was found on the premises. Mrs. Mattein when asked on Monday where her husband was, replied that he had gone to the country to play music. The woman has five children. Evidently becoming alarmed on Monday, she sent three of them to neighbors and disappeared with the other two. The police think Mattein was the victim of a deadly vendetta, and that his murder is the ecquel of the killing of the Sicillian Vincenzo Ottumoa, whose body was found in a swamp. Authory Dema and Anthony in a swamp. Authory Dema and Anthony 1889. in a swamp. Authory Dema and Anthony Corso were arrested for that deed on the confession of Mary Dema, but they were discharged by the recorder for want of evi-dence. The only witness, the woman Dema, having disappeared before the trial, Mattein took considerable interest in the Ot-tumoa case, thereby displeasing his fellow countrymen, and he was doomed. There is no doubt that the woman was instigated to commit the murder on Sunday night.

FRIGHTFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.-The St. Louis express, passing St. George, Ont., east-bound, at about 6 o'clock yesterday evening, went through a bridge just east of the station. A broken tire on one of the engine wheels caused the rails to spread, and the first passenger car, a Pullman car and the dining car went through the middle section of the bridge. The Pullman car, which contained most of the passengers, was thrown clear off the bridge, turning completely over and landing right side up. The dining car stood on end. The passenger car remained on the bridge, having ger car remained on the bridge, having tripped the ties ahead of it over the section that collapsed. Eight or ten persons were killed, and about thirty wounded persons have been taken out of the cars. The dining room car contained about seven persons besides the waiters. Supper had just been announced, and in a few minutes the car would have been filled, and all must have perished. St. George, near where the disaster occurred, is on the Great Western branch of the Grand Trunk Railroad. receive prompt attention.

"Then I will not yield either," answered Mr. Biddleberger.
"If you have got anything to yield you needn't to," retorted Mr. Cullom.
Mr. Biddleberger then resumed his seat, and waited for another opportunity. In a little while Mr. Edmunds and Mr. Cullom went over to him and whispered to him. Mr. Biddleberger then arose, and said that he would not renew his motion, as it had been said to him that at 2 o'clock to-day a motion for an executive session would very likely prevail. very likely prevail.

To NAME A NEW BISHOP .- The Catholic Bishops of the province of Baltimore met there yesterday at the residence of Cardinal Gibbons to select three names to be sent to Rome as their choice for the vacant bishopric of Richmond. Three names were first agreed upon by the clergy of the Diocese at Richmond several weeks ago. These names were submitted to the meeting of bishops. and if approved will be sent to Rome. If not all approved another name or names may be sent on by the bishops, in the exercise of their revisory power. The names selected in Richmond were not made public, but it is understood that the list is headed by the name of the Very Rev. Van De Vyver, Vicar General and present administrator of the diocese of Richmond. Conjecture, however, is very general in Baltimore that Rev. Dr. P. L. Chapelle, of Washington, will be strongly urged to succeed Bishop Keane.
